About the Music - - -

"Trombonists' Tropical Delight" was written to showcase the young trombone section. Using simple, but effective Latin rhythms, the trombone section gets to show off their abilities. So, get out the sunscreen, put on your sunglasses, and have an enjoyable time as the trombone section performs "Trombonists' Tropical Delight."

Notes to the conductor - This lively work should be played with energy. Observe the marked slide positions provided for the trombonists. Have fun!

About the Composer - - -

Dennis Eveland is now in his 25th year of teaching instrumental music education. He earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Western Illinois University and a Master of Music Education from Vandercook College of Music. In addition, he has an Administrative Certificate from Texas A&M International University.

Mr. Eveland has studied horn with Roger Collins, Ethel Merker, Arden Keen, and John Thompson. Others with whom he has studied include Dale F. Hopper, Dennis L. Johnson, Christopher Izzo, Roger Rocco, Dr. Victor Zajec, Bart Ghent, Michael Katterjohn, and Kelly Love.

Mr. Eveland began his teaching career in Toulon, Illinois and has spent the past 21 years teaching in the United Independent School District in Laredo, Texas. He has experience teaching at both the middle and high school levels.

A very active marching band arranger, Mr. Eveland is a composer as well. He has either written or arranged over 40 selections for competitive marching bands. Several bands have advanced to the Area Level of the Texas State Marching Band Competition using Mr. Eveland's arrangements.

Dennis and his lovely wife, Felisa, are the proud parents of Willie (16) and Tammy (12).

Mr. Eveland is available to write commissions for concert band works, marching band works, and orchestra works.
